

Network Access Control for Chemical Holding

IT operations

cybersecurity

manufacturing

Customer

a large international manufacturing holding company with over 6,000 employees and an extensive geographically distributed IT infrastructure.

Goals

prevention of unauthorized use of devices in the corporate network. Automatic equipment tracking in a vast geographically distributed network.

Tasks

autodetect unknown network devices enrich data about network devices for quick decision-making regarding blocking/unblocking automatically recognize and create profiles for new network equipment immediate 24/7 notification of administrators about network issues

Results

Realtime alerts
about important network events sent via messengers only two Admins

for 3000+ hosts

inventory base 100% valid & actual

the time for network inventory has been reduced from 3 weeks to 10 minutes